LOVELY HOME WEDDING

Seventy-five friends and relatives witnessed the beautiful wedding of Miss Will Alcorn and Mr. William Fred Luck of Watertown, which occurred at noon on Thursday, June 30, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Alcorn, Rev. A. J. Cole officiating, using the impressive ring ceremony.

The house decorations were roses, sweetpeas, ferns and vines. An improvised altar of lattice work combined with tulle, ferns and roses was arranged in the parlor, for the grouping of the bridal party. The lovely effect of the decorations was completed by the soft candle-light.

Preceding the ceremony several musical selections were given by Mrs. Will Sweeney of Watertown, vocalist, Miss Rubie Taylor of Lebanon, violinist, and Miss Mamie Morgan, pianist. The personnel of the bridal party were Mrs. Benton Carlen, Matron of honor, Miss Matalce Barnes, maid of honor, little Margaret Josephine Gracey, niece of the bride, ring bearer and Mr. Lillard Vann of Watertown, as best man.

Mrs. Carlen wore a lace trimmed rose organdy, and a black Meline hat. Miss Barnes' frock was of apricot organdy, with which she wore a large leghorn hat. They carried pink Russell roses. The little ring bearer was daintily dressed in a white organdy and carried the ring in a french bouquet.

Miss Alcorn was lovely in a becoming suit of blue tricotine, her hat and blouse were full models and harmonized with her suit. Her flowers were valley lilies and roses. The bride's gifts to her matron and maid were silver doris, to the musicians silver thimbles, and to those assisting in receiving dainty hand made handkerchiefs.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Luck left for Asheville, N. C. After July 10, they will be at home in Watertown.

The many gifts received by this popular couple were very useful and handsome. This most interesting wedding brought to Cookeville many out of town guests. They were, Mr. and Mrs. Luck, Paul Luck, Mrs. Will Sweeney and Mr. Lillard Vann of Watertown, Miss Rubie Taylor of Lebanon, Mrs. Joseph Cronbach of Nashville, Mrs. Chas. Douglas, Mrs. Early of Algood; Mrs. W. G. Travis of Buffalo Valley, Mrs. David Lee of Pawnee, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Whitson, Cincinnati, Ohio; Mrs. Fletcher Bly, Williams, Ariz., Miss Bubie Maddux of Granville and Miss Blanche Darwin of Gainesboro.

On Wednesday evening a rehearsal party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Alcorn. The guest list included the members of the bridal party, the house guests and a few intimate friends. After the rehearsal an ice course was served in the dining room, from a table decorated in tulle and adorned flowers, having for its chief ornament the bride's cake. Those serving were Mrs. Chas. Douglas, Mrs. Will Sweeney, Mrs. Rutledge Smith and Mrs. Cronbach.

MISSSES WILSON AND ALGOOD HOSTESSES OF FOURTH OF JULY PARTY

On Monday evening, a Fourth of July party was given by Misses Elizabeth Wilson and Rosalind Algood at the home of Miss Wilson on Dixie Ave.

A patriotic color scheme was beautifully used in the decoration of the porch and lawn. Dancing was enjoyed during the evening, and many other forms of entertainment were carried out.

Delightful refreshments appropriate for the occasion were served and included popcorn, ice cream in cones and lemonade.

Mrs. Wilson assisted the hostesses in receiving and entertaining.

MRS. RUTLEDGE SMITH HOSTESS OF AN ALFRESCO AFFAIR

Miss Will Alcorn who was the recipient of many lovely parties given before her marriage on June 30, was the honoree of a miscellaneous show given by Mrs. Rutledge Smith, on Tuesday afternoon at her home on Washington Ave. The guests were received by Mrs. Smith, and Miss Alcorn on the lawn which was a picturesque setting for an afternoon party.

The gifts were presented to the bride in a toy wagon which was decorated in crepe paper and tulle, and drawn by the following children: Sue Ray Carlen, John Reagan, Mary Alice Farr, Marguerite Anderson, Margaret Josephine Gracey, Louise Bullock, Charline Gracey and Mary Carlen. Sue Ray Carlen and John Reagan were dressed as a bride and groom, the others as their attendants.

Ices, sandwiches and mints were served by Mesdames C. Anderson, Jas. Quarles, and H. T. Whitson, from a beautifully arranged table, having for a centerpiece a large silver basket filled with pink roses. Those assisting in serving were Mesdames Robert Lowe, Chas. Douglas, Misses Bessie Alcorn, Matalce Barnes, Alice Keith Ford and Dollie Smith. Sixty guests enjoyed this most charming affair.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Very unique invitations were issued to the party given on Friday by Mary Frances Whitson at the home of Mrs. R. L. Maddux. The occasion was to celebrate the eleventh birthday of the young hostess.

A pleasing feature of the afternoon were "stunts" given by each guest. In an "Independence Day" contest Elizabeth Hargis won the prize. Charlotte Watson was winner of the prize in another clever contest.

A color motif of red, white and blue was used in the dining room. In the center of the table was a large birthday cake, adorned with eleven bright colored candles. Miniature fire crackers were given as favors. Many birthday remembrances were received by the hostess.

The kind of a portrait you and your friends will appreciate --- and we'll make it without fuss or bother---in your home or our studio.
